
Luxembourg's cultural history

In cooperation with the University of Luxembourg and the 'Centre national de l'audiovisuel' (CNA), SCRIPT has put in place a website www.kulturgeschichte.lu that was developed for secondary students, but it is open to the public.

The website is entirely dedicated to Luxembourg's cultural history, a vast and varied field of study. It offers different categories, such as the history of its theatre, its economic and social history, the history of media, its cultural heritage, etc. This digital platform is divided into chapters containing contributions by experts in their fields.

Thanks to a convention with CNA and many other cultural and economic actors, all texts could be supplemented with historical sources (photos, audio recordings, films, etc.).